

NACSW's New Partnership with RedShelf Provides an Additional Convenient, Low-Cost Option to Purchase or Rent Digital Copies of NACSW's Books

NACSW is pleased to announce a new partnership with Redshelf to provide an easy, low-cost option for purchasing or renting digital copies of most of NACSW's books. While this partnership originally focused on providing educators and students with direct access to digital materials for their social work classes, it has now expanded to offer digital access to all NACSW members and friends.

NACSW will, of course, also continue to make available print copies of all our books to those who prefer a hard copy format. But now NACSW members and friends will have an additional option for accessing NACSW titles as well. NACSW also currently has arrangements with three other digital book distributors: Follett, VitalSource and MBS Textbook Exchange, which also support the use of NACSW materials to a wide range of universities in North America.

For your reference, the following NACSW books are now available for purchase or rent in digital format via RedShelf:
