

Point of View Articles Review Form

Below please rate the article using the 5 following criteria:

1. Topic is relevant to the work of Christians in social work. Please check one box below, and add any comments at the end of this section, providing your evaluation of the article on this criterion:

*

- No/minor revisions required: Topic is current, substantive, and relevant to the work of Christians in social work.
- Revisions required: Topic is somewhat current, substantive, and relevant to the work of Christians in social work.
- Borderline/substantive revisions required: Topic shows promise for relevance to the work of Christians in social work, but further development is necessary to establish currency or substance.
- Does not meet requirements: Topic shows limited relevance to the work of Christians in social work. Topic is not current and not well developed.

Please provide any additional comments related to your evaluation of the article on this criterion.

2. Article demonstrates clear insight drawn on Christian thought and social work. Please check one box below, and add any comments at the end of this section, providing your evaluation of the article on this criterion:

*

- No/minor revisions required: Article demonstrates clear insight and original thinking drawing on Christian thought, social work practice, and relevant scholarly sources.
- Revisions required: Article demonstrates some insight and originality drawing on Christian thought, social work practice, and scholarly sources.

- Borderline/substantive revisions required: Article shows promise of some insights or originality, but with unclear sources from Christian thought, social work practice, or and scholarly sources.
- Does not meet requirements: Article shows limited insights or originality, with no apparent sources in Christian thought, social work practice, or scholarly sources.

Please provide any additional comments related to your evaluation of the article on this criterion.

3. Discussion integrates Christian faith and social work. Please check one box below, and add any comments at the end of this section, providing your evaluation of the article on this criterion:

*

- No/minor revisions required: Discussion integrates social work and Christianity and offers original and insightful commentary.
- Revisions required: Discussion integrates social work and Christianity and offers some original and/or insightful commentary.
- Borderline/substantive revisions required: Discussion shows promise for integrating social work and Christianity and promise for some original and/or insightful commentary.
- Does not meet requirements: Discussion shows limited promise for integrating social work and Christianity and little promise for some original or insightful commentary.

Please provide any additional comments related to your evaluation of the article on this criterion.

4. Article is clear, cohesive, and organized. Please check one box below, and add any comments at the end of this section, providing your evaluation of the article on this criterion:

*

- No/minor revisions required: Article is clear, focused, and organized.
- Revisions required: Article is clear, focused, and organized with some room for improvement.
- Borderline/substantive revisions required: Article show some promise but currently lacks clarity and organization.
- Does not meet requirements: Article shows limited promise for improvement in the areas of clarity or organization.

Please provide any additional comments related to your evaluation of the article on this criterion.

A rectangular text input field with a light gray border. On the right side, there are three small square buttons stacked vertically, likely for scroll control. At the bottom, there are four small square buttons: two on the left and two on the right, likely for horizontal scroll control.

5. Spelling, grammar, and APA formatting is accurate. Please check one box below, and add any comments at the end of this section, providing your evaluation of the article on this criterion:

*

- No/minor revisions required: Few, if any errors, in writing mechanics and APA format
- Revisions required: Few errors in writing mechanics and APA format
- Borderline/substantive revisions required: Several errors in writing mechanics and APA format
- Does not meet requirements: Numerous errors in writing mechanics and APA format.

Please provide any additional comments related to your evaluation of the article on this criterion.

